Thank you for joining us last Thursday, December 4th, at the reception for The Reform Jewish Voice of New York State. We were so pleased that you were able to learn about RJV and hear State Senator Liz Krueger speak about the creation of a New York State government for the 21st century and the role that RJV can play in shaping those changes.

The Reform Jewish Voice needs your financial support to continue its important work in educating congregations on critical public policy issues, such as economic justice, reproductive rights and civil liberties. We actively support progressive social legislation at the state level.

Make your voice heard in Albany by supporting RJV now. During this time of economic challenges, RJV's access to legislators impacts their decisions that affect the lives of every New Yorker. Your contribution makes it possible for RJV to continue to visit legislators, conduct advocacy training workshops and create innovative programs.

State Senator Liz Krueger (center) speaks at an RJV advocacy event in December 2008 with RJV Steering Committee and members.

We urge you to make a gift of $500, $250, $100 or whatever you can afford. We hope you'll place RJV high on your charitable donation list as you make your year-end gifts. Given the challenges we face and the issues on our agenda, our collective support will really make a difference in communities throughout our state.

Warm Wishes,

Honey Heller, Rabbi Marc Gruber, Donna Bascom and Steve Cotton
