Don’t Kvetch Organize!
A special training with the RAC

Our political landscape is increasingly polarized.
How do we make a difference, not just a statement?

JOIN for Justice invites you to join a special session of our online course, Don’t Kvetch, Organize!, sponsored by the RAC.
Join 30+ other RAC members to examine how community organizing can be used to build power, strengthen our communities, and create a more just world.

Are you someone who wants to learn how to have a meaningful impact on issues you care about while exploring the connections between Judaism and social justice?

If you answered yes! then this course if for you!

The Details:

- The course includes videos you can watch at your own pace, online sessions with your Course Instructor, and reflection assignments.
- The RAC cohort will run April 5 – July 9
- Weekly online sessions from 6 - 7:30 pm CST / 7 - 8:30 pm EST
- Sliding scale registration $175 – $345 based on income.
- Register by March 8 for a $50 early bird discount. Final registration deadline March 20.

Find out more at www.joinforjustice.org/dontkvetch

Register at bit.ly/RACDKO23

What past participants are saying

“This has been an amazing fast-track introduction to the Social Justice organizing world.”

“I feel ready to embrace taking action with confidence, as a leader.”