READING WITH RESPONSE

Adapted from Elie Wiesel's "The opposite of love is not hate."

The opposite of love is not hate, it's indifference.

Love moves us Forward Together

All of us united against hate on this day declare by our presence:

Love moves us Forward Together

We will share our love, for love rises above hate.

Love moves us Forward Together

Love is our hope, it is our antidote, it is the blessing that feeds every human soul.

Love moves us Forward Together

As we stand against the storm, may we beat the swords of hate into plowshares of love

Love moves us Forward Together

Standing on the Parted Shores (Noah Aronson and Michael Walzer)

Standing on the parted shores of history

We still believe what we were taught

That before ever we stood at Sinai's foot

That wherever we go - it's eternally
Egypt

That there's a better place
A promised land

And the winding way to that promise

Passes through the wilderness
That there's no way to get from here to there

Except by joining hands
And marching together
Singing:

La, la, la, la...

There are days when we seek things for ourselves and measure failure by what we do not gain.

On Shabbat we are reminded not to acquire but to share.

There are days when we exploit nature as if it were a horn of plenty that can never be exhausted.

On Shabbat we stand in wonder before the mystery of creation

There are days when we act as if we cared nothing for the rights of others.

On Shabbat we are reminded that justice is our duty and a better world our goal.

There are days when we seek to dominate and subdue.

On Shabbat we seek peace and pursue it.

(Silent Moment to finish the Amidah and for personal prayers)

Olam Hesed Yibaneh (Menachem Creditor)

I will build this world with love

And you must build this world with love

And if we build this world from love

Then God will build this world from love

MI SHEBEYRACH - Rabbi Esther Lederman

One (Peri Smilow)

One is enough to till the land
One can make music loud as any band
One's all it takes to reach out a hand
One is enough to take a stand
One – One –
One

One's all we need to teach and lead
One to guide and one to feed
One plus one is you and me
Maybe you can be the one to help us believe
In One – One
One – One

In a world with so much plenty
We got all that we need
To care for our children
The sick and those not free
Each one of us must listen well
Wake up and heed the call
Step in – reach out – lift up
One voice still matters after all
One is a heart whose love's so strong

It'll open up another and on and on 'til everybody knows that everyone belongs
One is the start of a brand new song – it goes
One – One
One – One

In a world with so much plenty
We got all that we need
To care for our children
The sick and those not free
Each one of us must listen well
Wake up and heed the call
Step in – reach out – lift up
One voice still matters after all

One is enough to till the land
One can make music loud as any band
One's all it takes to reach out a hand
One is enough to take a stand
One – One –
One

L'dor Vador (Josh Nelson)

We are gifts and we are blessings, we are history in song
We are hope and we are healing, we are learning to be strong
We are words and we are stories, we are pictures of the past
We are carriers of wisdom, not the first and not the last

CHORUS:

L'dor vador nagid godlecha

(From generation to generation, we will tell of Your greatness)

L'dor vador... we protect this chain

From generation to generation

L'dor vador, these lips will praise Your name

Looking back on the journey that we carry in our heart
From the shadow of the mountain to the waters that would part
We are blessed and we are holy, we are children of Your way
And the words that bring us meaning, we will have the strength to say
